

Sponsorship Invitation 2026

In just 20 months, the Topanga Farmers Market has become a trusted gathering place for the community. Despite fires, road closures, and construction, we've been fortunate to continue welcoming ~500 customers each week and supporting more than 45 local farms and small businesses.

We've become a destination for fresh food, sustainability, and community:

- Vendors now seek us out for our community spirit, loyal customers, and incredible views.
- Parking is now free for all, making the market more accessible.
- Our Fridays now include live music, kids' music classes, workshops, dance and fitness classes, knife sharpening, electronic recycling, mending services, and a weekly community clothing swap.
- During the Palisades Fire, we partnered with World Central Kitchen to provide produce to fire-impacted residents and continue serving housebound seniors today.

Why Partner With Us

Your sponsorship supports small farms, local businesses, and a sustainable community gathering space. It also provides valuable visibility:

- 4,500+ newsletter subscribers (70% open rate)
- 15K+ Instagram followers, growing by ~600/month
- Hundreds of weekly visitors from Topanga, Malibu, Westside, Valley & beyond

The Impact of Your Sponsorship

Looking ahead, we aim to expand with more children's programs, nonprofit booths, special events, and workshops. We also need ongoing support for weekly operating costs. Your sponsorship sustains the market today while helping us grow into a lasting community institution—one that strengthens our local food system, supports small businesses, and ensures that Topanga continues to thrive.

TOPANGA FARMERS MARKET SPONSOR

A PRODUCE BOX FOR A NEIGHBOR IN NEED

After last year's fires, World Central Kitchen generously partnered with us to provide fresh, organic produce boxes to members of our community who needed support and seniors in the canyon who are housebound or experiencing financial hardship.

That funding will conclude at the end of December 2025. To continue supporting our neighbors in need—many of whom now rely on these deliveries—we need to raise funds to keep the program going.

For just $20 per week, you can provide a neighbor in need with a box of nutritious, organic produce delivered right to their doorstep by our local volunteers. That's $480 for 6 months or $960 for a full year—a tangible way to make a direct and lasting impact in someone's life.

Sponsors can be recognized:

- In our e-newsletter
- On our website & Instagram

This is the perfect opportunity to make a lasting difference in our community. It's a win-win for Topanga: each box not only nourishes a neighbor who can't access their own food each week, but the produce is purchased directly from our local farmers.
